Discipleship

Christianity without discipleship is always Christianity without Christ —Dietrich Bonhoeffer

In the spiritual life only one thing produces genuine joy and that is obedience —Richard Foster

Whatsoever one would understand what he hears must hasten to put into practice what he has heard —Gregory the Great

We must assess our thoughts and beliefs and reckon whether they are moving us closer to conformity to Christ or farther away from it —John Ortberg

If thou art willing to suffer no adversity, how wilt thou be the friend of Christ? —Thomas à Kempis

Holiness has never been the driving force of the majority. It is, however, mandatory for anyone who wants to enter the kingdom. —Elisabeth Elliot

A Word from the Pastor

Dearly beloved in Christ,

Greetings to you in the most precious name of our Lord and saviour Jesus Christ.

By the grace of God, we have entered into the second month of 2011. Last month, our meditations were based on the theme "God's family". This month, we are planning to have "Discipleship" as the main theme. It will enable us to prepare for the 'Lenten' season next month. May the Lord bless us abundantly so that we witness unto him in our spiritual journey.

Discipleship comes from the word "discipline" and it denotes the one who follows or trains in an orderly way of life. The word "discipline" is not new to the Methodist people. The founding fathers of the Methodist church, the Wesleyan brothers, were famous for their systematic teaching or methodical teaching and that's why people called them "The Methodists". These Methodist people strictly followed certain guidelines so that the personal lives of the preachers and the churches would be according to the scripture and the law of the land. The guiding book of law and constitution is called "The book of Discipline". It has helped the Methodist church in good administration and governance.

Firstly, for our "discipleship", we need to follow Jesus in the light of the scripture and what he is. He is the Lord and Saviour and our church professes the same. Apostle Peter answered to Jesus when he was questioned about what the people said about him. He declared, "You are the Christ, the son of the living God" (Matthew. 16:16). He was the incarnate Christ, the Lord.

Secondly, we see that these days, people are attracted to the teaching, philosophy and attractive life styles of others, and become their disciples. But Jesus taught about 'the Kingdom of God' and he became the supreme example. He ministered to the sick, comforted the grieving, gave hope to the discouraged and fed the hungry. To redeem the people from the bondage of sins and show us the love of God, he took up the cross and died on it. He rose again from the dead and became the living saviour. Since he is the living Saviour, it is redeeming for us to be his disciples.

Thirdly, we follow him because he forgives our sins and cleanses us. He enables us to be acceptable to the father God. The Scripture says, "He who believes in him will have eternal life". We need him to be our Lord and Saviour. He wants us to be saved from sin and have eternal life. He entrusted this ministry to those who follow him. He told his disciples to go into the world and preach the good news and baptize the people. This responsibility lies upon each and every believer when called to the discipleship. Every sinner needs the Saviour. This comes through repentance of their sins and faith in Jesus as the saviour who cleansed their sins on the cross of Calvary.

As we meditate on "discipleship" this month, may the Lord enrich you to find this Saviour. May you find forgiveness for your sins and the privilege to be his follower. May God enable you to find this Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Yours in His service,

Rev. David Vijaya Kumar
Sr. Pastor

MEMORIZE THE BIBLE

Theme: 'DISCIPLESHIP'

Sunday, Feb 6
Matt 9:12-13

On hearing this, Jesus said, "It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. But go and learn what this means: 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice.' For I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners."

Sunday, Feb 13
Luke 9:62

Jesus replied, "No one who puts a hand to the plow and looks back is fit for service in the kingdom of God."

Sunday, Feb 20
Rev 2:2-5

I know your deeds, your hard work and your perseverance. I know that you cannot tolerate wicked people, that you have tested those who claim to be apostles but are not, and have found them false. You have persevered and have endured hardships for my name, and have not grown weary.

Yet I hold this against you: You have forsaken the love you had at first. Consider how far you have fallen! Repent and do the things you did at first. If you do not repent, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place.

Sunday, Feb 27
Philippians 3:13-16

Brothers and sisters, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus. All of us, then, who are mature should take such a view of things. And if on some point you think differently, that too God will make clear to you. Only let us live up to what we have already attained.

THE WOUNDED “YOU”

But he was wounded for our transgressions; he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.” – Isaiah 53:5 (KJV)

The Prologue ...

If we could look back in time, most of us have been Christians ever since we understood what religion is all about. Our parents have been keen to teach us say “JESUS” when we first began to speak as a little child. Right from childhood, even till today – We have been attending the Church, reading the Bible and praying to GOD. What fascinates me is the fact that – we have never been bored of GOD. If you like a movie , a dish or a play, though you may like it the most, you still will get bored after watching it or eating it multiple times. But there is something so special about our “LORD JESUS”, that makes sure we run back to him again and again. Is it not interesting that we have never been bored of GOD?

Among the many facets of HIS glorious nature, let’s meditate on one of his supernatural quality, which has always inspired me ever since I know him.

The Wounded “YOU” ...

The book of II Kings 5th chapter begins with an interesting verse which describes a mighty warrior and leader named Naaman.

Now Naaman, captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master, and honourable, because by him the LORD had given deliverance unto Syria: he was also a mighty man in valour, BUT he was a leper – II Kings 5:1 (KJV)

Dear Friends – Did you notice the highlighted “BUT” in the above verse? Though Naaman was a great man, “BUT” he still had a “VOID”, an incompleteness in his Life which ONLY GOD could fill up.

Just like Naaman, we all have a “VOID” in our lives, an incompleteness which ONLY GOD can fill. GOD is the inescapable part of our life and we are incomplete without HIM. Most of the times in Life, we are wounded – mentally, physically and spiritually- by this hurting world. Though we pretend to look stronger, we are hurt within and have bottled up all our sorrow for ourselves. And when we are hurt – all that we need is a loving Companion, a set of caring hands and a shoulder on which we can lean down and pour out ourselves.

I saw a little kid playing around his mother. The kid was running around with all excitement and the mother watching the kid with all the joy. Suddenly the kid fell down and bruised his arm. He got up and looked towards his mother. He was hurt. The moment his mother stretched out her arms, he ran into her and then began to cry.

This is exactly what happens to you and me when we come to meet up our LORD JESUS CHRIST. We run into his arms and it becomes so difficult to stop our tears rolling down our cheek. Do you now understand, why tears roll down our cheeks when we meet our beloved LORD JESUS? Because is HE is that invisible comforter, who has always embraced us when we were weary and tired of Life.

The Loving “Comforter”...

The Living Bible declares us the eternal comforter -

But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you. – John 14:26 (KJV)

Who was in the beginning, who is now with us and will stay for ever

And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; - John 14:16 (KJV)

One of the important ministry of GOD THE HOLY SPIRIT is to comfort the believers. When we are shattered in life and burdened with pain – here we have GOD himself available to comfort us. He will definitely embrace you in his arms and give you the warmth of his caring presence. He so clearly whispers in your ears every time , all the time – Fear not little child, I am here to help you!. Oh.. how we long to hear these consoling words !.

That’s why the Psalmist says

Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty .....He will cover you with his feathers, and under his wings you will find refuge; ...Psalm 91:1-4 (KJV, Selected portion)

The Healing Touch...

This wonderful healing touch of JESUS, is one big reason which keeps us pulling back to him. His loving arms have never ceased to embrace us when we have run to him with pain. GOD’s precious love is unconditional and everlasting. Let’s not take up all the pain ourselves. It’s time for us to tell the LORD every aspect of our life and be relieved that he shall take care. That’s how the beautiful song was composed ...

What a friend we have in Jesus,
All our sins and griefs to bear!
What a privilege to carry
Everything to God in prayer!

Amen.
