A Word from the Pastor

Dearlly beloved,

Greetings to you in the most precious name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. I thank God for the opportunity to meditate upon the Cross and reflect ourselves with our lives. In Christian faith, a lot has been said about the Cross. But what does it mean to us?

In the Greco-Roman world, the crucifixion was the lowest form of capital punishment to the slaves who were condemned to death. The story of that person will come to an end. But Christ's crucifixion on the cross was so unique, that today the entire world knows its meaning. Of course, many may not accept the redemption brought by the Cross of Jesus. Whether they know it or not, their sins were also forgiven on the same Cross. Today, the Cross of Jesus is no longer a sign of disgrace but a way of Salvation for all those who believe in him and the sacrifice he made on that Cross. Let me share some Biblical perspectives.

1. The Scandal of the Cross:

Paul, in 1st Corinthians 1:18 onwards shares about the Cross and narrates about its importance to the Jews and Gentiles. "But we preach Christ crucified: a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles", could Salvation come to the Greco-Roman world by Crucifixion, a punishment reserved for slaves and not only a cruel death but a disgrace? Could Salvation come to the Jews through a dead body which they consider so impure, that must be removed immediately? Could they accept that Salvation comes from a condemned man, bearing the mark of a divine curse, hanging on the Cross. So many impossible things to preach about the Cross. But in the light of the resurrected Christ, Paul and Peter's preaching brought new meaning. Redemption through the Cross.

2. The mystery of the Cross:

Before the resurrection of Jesus, the Cross had no meaning. Jesus foretold about his death. But the disciples realized it only after his resurrection. After the Pentecost, the disciples themselves preached the necessity of the Cross as part of the Plan of God. "The messiah had to suffer", according to the scripture as the risen Lord will explain to the disciples going to Emmas (Luke 24:25f).

3. The Theology of the Cross:

Paul says, " Christ died for our sins according to the scripture" (1 Cor 15:3). This is basis for his theological reflection that exhibits the true wisdom of God and his plan already spoken in the scripture (1 Cor 1:19f), and the power of God appears through the weakness of man (1 Cor 1:25). Based on this, Paul discovers meaning in the Crucifixion of Christ. Jesus was "hung from a tree"(cross) as one cursed so that we might escape the curse of the Law. His body exposed on the Cross, to condemn sin in the flesh. "By the blood of the Cross" God reconciled all things to himself (Col 1:20).

4. The Cross and the Christian

Life: Jesus says, " If a person wishes to come after me, let him deny himself and take up his Cross and follow me" (Math 16:24). That means we are dead to the world and proclaim Christ, accepting the trials and persecutions as part of our Christian living. It means the Cross is a sign of anticipated Glory. We must confess our sins and nail it on the Cross. As Paul says, " May I never boast except in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ through which the world has been crucified to me and I to the world" (Gal 6:14).

Dearly beloved, as we meditate on the Word of God this Lent, may this Cross of Christ remind us that Christ died for us. Let us accept this fact and accept him as our Lord and Saviour. Let us preach the Cross, through our living. Let us carry our own cross and follow him. May the dear Lord reveal the true meaning of the Cross and fulfill his plan and purpose in our lives.

May God bless you.

Yours in Christ,

Rev. David Vijayakumar

HOSPITAL

H is for Health which is truly wealth,
Appreciated more so, when ill health besets us.
It is in sickness that we really value good health,
Which often we take for granted.
The joy in each new day with health and renewed vigor,
Enables us to live life to its fullest potential
Complete and meaningful

O is for Organization of a Hospital
The various departments of Outpatients,
Inpatients, Casualty, ICU, Radiology, Physiotherapy,
Clinical laboratory, Pathology, Medical Records etc,
All linked and working together
To provide the holistic care we need.

S is for Specialties and Super specialties we consult,
Be it Medicine, Surgery, Pediatrics, Neurology,
Psychiatry, Cardiology, Gastroenterology,
Oncology the list never ends
Hi-tech specialized care which the 21st century affords
For rapid diagnosis, management and treatment
That all medical teams aspire for,
But it is God Almighty,
The Divine Physician and thy healer

P is for Patients who enter the portals of hospitals
Both young and old,
Coming from afar and near,
Seeking a cure for their malady
Find peace, solace and healing they need,

I is for each inspired breath we take
Fresh air and oxygen – the very breath of life
So vital for the normal functioning
Of each cell in the body for one's overall wellbeing,
Good health and life, enriched, abundant and fruitful.

T is for Tender, Loving, Care
We crave for when we are sick,
The cool touch to the fevered brow,
The consoling, loving and kind words to the troubled mind,
The gentle nursing care to the pain wracked body
Brings the healing balm to the spirit

A is for Almighty God,
Creator of the Universe,
Who loved us so much that he sent,
His only begotten son to die on the cross for us,
So that we can live with faith and confidence
Even though we should walk
Through the valley of the shadow of death
We shall fear no evil,
For God is with us and his presence
Shall abide in us and watch over us,
In all our going out and coming in,

L is for Life or springs of Living Water
Drink so we shall thirst no more.
Jesus said "Come unto me,
All you who are laboring under a heavy load,
Those who are sick and dying
And I will give you everlasting life,
Peace, joy and happiness.
Call on my name for I am
Thy Healer and Physician

MEMORIZE THE BIBLE

Sunday, March 7
Matthew 10:38-39

'Anyone who does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it'.

Sunday, March 14
Acts 2:23-24

'This man was handed over to you by God's set purpose and foreknowledge; and you, with the help of wicked men, put him to death by nailing him to the cross. But God raised him from the dead, freeing him from the agony of death, because it was impossible for death to keep its hold on him'

Sunday, March 21
Galatians 6:14-15

May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. Neither circumcision nor uncircumcision means anything; what counts is a new creation.

Sunday, March 28
Hebrews 12:2-3

Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured such opposition from sinful men, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart.

Sunday, April 4
John 11:25-27

Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will live, even though he dies; and whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" "Yes, Lord," she told him, "I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who was to come into the world."

My Saviour

*On this lonely road I wait,
Eagerly for the call,
But am I not a bait
For evil ones behind the wall.
Yet I'm not afraid
No, not at all
'Cause my Saviour is with me.
No evil one can dare,
To do me any harm
The wicked will retreat
Their power disappear.
So, why should I fear?
When He is there, My Saviour.
The darkest caves
The highest hills
The widest ocean, I'll brave
Where others stumble, I'll be
Still on my journey,
In quest of victory.
So why should I ever fear?
When my Saviour is near.
No fear, no wicked can conquer
This determination to succeed
For my Saviour is there with me
And ever shall be.*

THE GENERAL RULES OF THE METHODIST CHURCH IN INDIA

THE NATURE, DESIGN AND GENERAL RULES OF OUR UNITED SOCIETY

In the latter end of the year 1739 eight or ten persons who appeared to be deeply convicted of sin, and earnestly groaning for redemption, came to Mr. Wesley in London. They desired, that he would spend some time with them in prayer, and advise them how to flee from the wrath to come, which they saw continually hanging over their heads. That he might have more time for this great work, he appointed a day when they might all come together, which from thenceforward they did every week, namely, on Thursday in the evening. To these, and as many more as desired to join with them (for their number increased daily), he gave those advices from time to time which he judged most needful for them, and they always concluded their meeting with prayer suited to their several necessities.

This was the rise of United Society, first in Europe, and then in America. Such a society is no other than "a company of men having the form and seeking the power of godliness, united in order to pray together: to receive the word of exhortation, and to watch over one another in love, that they may help each other to work out their salvation."

The society met and framed a set of rules for its spiritual formation and up keeping. They are:

FIRST: By doing no harm; by avoiding evil of every kind, especially that which is most generally practiced, such as:

The taking of the name of God in vain.

The profaning of the day of the Lord, either by doing ordinary work therein or by buying or selling.

Drunkenness, buying or selling spirituous liquors, or drinking them, unless in cases of extreme necessity.

The buying or selling of men, women, and children with an intention to enslave them.

Fighting, quarrelling, brawling, brother going to law with brother; returning evil for evil, or railing for railing; the using, of many words in buying or selling.

The buying or selling goods that have not paid the duty.

The giving or taking of things on usury-that is, unlawful interest.

Uncharitable or unprofitable conversation; particularly speaking evil of magistrates or ministers.

Doing to others as we would not they should do unto us.

Doing what we know is not for the glory of God, as:

The putting on of gold and costly apparel.

The taking of such diversions as cannot be used in the name of the Lord, Jesus.

The singing of those songs, or reading those books,
Which do not tend to the knowledge or love of God.
Softness and needless self-indulgence.

Laying up treasure upon earth.

Borrowing without a probability of paying; or taking, up goods without a probability of paying for them.

It is expected of all who continue in these societies that they shall continue to evidence their desire of salvation.

SECOND: By doing good; by being in every kind merciful after their power; as they have opportunity, doing good of every possible sort, and, as far as possible, to all men.

To their bodies, of the ability which God gives, by giving food to the hungry, by clothing the naked, by visiting or helping them that are sick or in prison.

To their souls, by instructing, reproofing, or exhorting all we have any interaction with; trampling under foot that enthusiastic doctrine, that "we, are not to do good unless our hearts be free to it."

By doing good, especially to them that are of the household of faith or groaning so to be; employing them preferably to others; buying one of another; helping each other in business; and so much the more because the world will love its own and them only.

By all possible diligence and frugality, that the gospel be not blamed.

By running with patience the race that is set before them, denying themselves, and taking up their cross daily; submitting to bear the reproach of Christ, to be as the filth and offscouring of the world; and looking that men should say all manner of evil of them falsely, for the Lord's sake.

It is 'expected' of all who desire to continue in these societies that they shall continue to evidence their desire of salvation.

THIRD: By attending upon all ordinances of God; such are:

The public worship of God.

The ministry of the Word either read or expounded.

The Supper of the Lord.

Family and private prayer.

Searching the Scriptures.

Fasting or abstinence.

These are the General Rules of our societies; all of which we are taught of God to observe, even in his written Word, which is only rule and the sufficient rule, both of our faith and practice. And all these we know his Spirit writes on truly awakened hearts. If there be any among us who observes them not, who habitually breaks any of them, let it be known unto them who watch over that soul as they who must give an account. We will admonish him of the error of his ways. We will bear with him for a season. But, if then he repent not, he hath no more place among us. We have delivered our own souls.

In the month of December 2009 the Prison Ministry of our church along with Karnataka Shubhas-amachara Mandali Medical Ministry team visited the prisons in Bangalore Central, Kolar Sub-jail, Tumkur District Jail and the Open Air Prison in Devanahalli. In all the prisons the prison officials gladly welcomed us to minister to the prisoners.

The prisoners were also anxious and eager to hear from us. We sang songs of Christmas tidings of great joy and peace to all mankind. The Word of God was preached and shared with them. Many Bible tracts and Bibles were distributed to the prisoners. Many of the prisoners, after hearing the Word committed their lives to Jesus. Through the generous gift of Indiranagar Methodist Church, fruits packets and biscuits were distributed to all the prisoners in various prisons. This is to express our love and concern for them. They were thankful for the gifts and for sharing the love of Christ. After preaching, many came forward for prayer and had one to one counselling with the prisoners. Many of them had various prayer request for their families and their early release orders. Also, some of them requested us to visit their families and give them also the message of salvation grace. The prisoners' prayer request was that all their prison inmates may be saved by the blood of Jesus before they leave the prison.

One prisoner who visited our church one Sunday morning by name Kari Gopi and had shared his testimony, is eagerly waiting for his release orders. He is looking forward to serve the Lord in full-time ministry. We thank God for the great things he is doing within the prisons and preparing many to be his fellow workers in God's vineyard.

One of the lady prisoners – Mallika who is illiterate and is under death sentence is put under single confinement. Women from our team were able to meet her and share the love of Christ with her. She repented and confessed her sins and has accepted Christ in her heart. Since she cannot read, a Kannada talking Bible was presented to her. She was overjoyed to receive it and expressed that at least now some one would speak to her through the talking Bible.

We thank God that the prison gates are still open for us to minister to the prisoners. Time is short before which we need to proclaim the Word of God to the prisoners and set them free from sin.

St. Paul in his letter to the Galatians 3:22 says, "But the Scripture declares that the whole world is a prisoner of sin, so that what was promised, being given through faith in Jesus Christ, might be given to those who believe". On judgment day God will say to us, "I was in prison and you came to visit me" (Matt 25:36, 40) and "whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me"

So please continue to pray and support this ministry that before His second coming many more souls will be won for the glory of God.

We are thankful to the church for all their financial support and encouragement to this ministry.
